Listen again and write in the missing words. You need to write three words in each space.

1. Dad is swimming in the hotel pool
2. Harry is buying souvenirs so he can remember the trip.
3. Aunt Rachel is taking photos of the old buildings.
4. Mom says, "I'd like an ice cream too!"

3

Language point

Study the sentences in the table.

1	2	3	4
What	are	you	doing?
Where	is	he	swimming?
Why	is	he	buying souvenirs?

How do we ask questions in the present continuous? Add these headings to the correct part of the table.

verb + -ing	question word
subject	a form of "to be"

Study these sentences.

Where's Aunt Rachel now?

Aunt Rachel is taking photos of the old streets and buildings.

She always goes out alone. She takes so many photos. It's her job. She's a photographer.

Choose the best word to complete the grammar rules.

We use the present continuous to talk about things at this moment or around now / that happen regularly or are always true.

We use the present simple to talk about things at this moment or around now / that happen regularly or are always true.

Study these sentences and read the grammar information.

remember
like want hate

Oh, you're eating ice cream. I like ice cream. Now I want ice cream too!

- Some verbs cannot be used in continuous forms.
- These are verbs that describe feelings that are always true. We call these state verbs.
- Other examples are love, don't like, hate, and prefer.
